GRENADA, MISSISSIPPI, FRIDAY, OCTOBER 20, 1922

NUMBER 22

THE GREAT NORTH MISSISSIPPI FAIR AT GRENADA NEXT WEEK. OPENS MONDAY, OCTOBER 23 AND CLOSES FRIDAY OCTOBER 27. 5 DAYS. ARE YOU COMING?

ALL IN READINESS FOR THE FAIR

"Old Glory" Floats Proudly In The Streets Of Grenada. Many Things Already At Fair Grounds. The Parade Monday Morning. 7000 Tickets Issued To School Children For Monday. Railroads Give Reduced Rates.

Grenada is in gala attire. The beautiful Stars and Stripes, which stand for liberty, enlightenment, happiness, prosperity and contentment, are waving in the streets of the town. The glad hand is ready for all who come to the great Fair next week.

President John Borden came down the early part of the week and has been here all the week during which he has given much of his time to making final fair arrangements.

Br. Borden has been seconded by Vice President Kirk. Indeed Mr. Kirk has been relentlessly on the job for some weeks. Secretary Sam Cain has been busy, too, and these gentlemen have had the needed co-operation of others in making plans and arrangements which always crowd themselves on those in charge of big enterprises just before opening day.

Monday is school day. Something like 7000 tickets have been distributed, or will be, to the school children of the Fair district, and the tickets are free, hence the school folks may be counted on to be here in numbers that will be surprising.

The parade Monday is the real beauty contest, and while there have been floats and parades at previous fairs that have been richly commended, the one Monday may be counted on to be more gorgeous and greater in every respect than ever before. It is understood that the parade will start at 10 o'clock Monday morning on South street near the residence of Mr. F. T. Gerard.

Many things are already on the fair grounds which serve to show what is being expected in the way of crowds for next week. A number of horses are already in stalls there and tomorrow (Saturday) and early Monday are expected to keep the fair managers, gate keepers and others as busy as a cat on a tin roof.

Some of the fastest race horses which are on the track this week at the State Fair at Jackson, are billed to come direct from there to Grenada, hence all who even delight "to watch the races" may count on some of the prettiest and swiftest movers that ever went on a race track in Mississippi.

The polo games are attracting great attention. Many inquiries come in about the games. This is a feature that has never been had at a Mississippi Fair or even at the Tri-State Fair at Memphis, however, Memphis made an effort this year to get the games, which are to be played here, played there.

The railroads have given the usual reduction on excursion rates, one and one half fare round trip. Reduced rates can be had as far south as Jackson and Yazoo City; west to Clarksdale and north to Memphis and Grand Junction. This is much beyond as to distance the usual concessions on excursion rates. Another very happy thing in this connection is the fact that trains will be stopped at Fair grounds for the accommodation of passengers.

It is understood that several hundred of Mr. Borden's friends from Chicago are to be in attendance, and Grenada has arranged to give the Chicago visitors a barbecued dinner at Spring Lake.

The Fair of 1922 is destined to be an epoch-making event in the history of this section and those who do not avail themselves of the opportunity of attending will miss an event that they ought to make worth a great deal to their business.

THE LADIES OF GRENADA WILL CO-OPERATE

With Merchants And Endeavor To Not Shop On Saturdays.

The Sentinel is publishing a half page card from Grenada merchants this week in which they ask their lady friends in Grenada to do their shopping on days other than Saturdays. The merchants make this request for the reason that the biggest trade days are on Saturdays and it is on that day that it seems to suit a vast majority of the country people to come to town.

The merchants feel that they can give their customers from the country better and more satisfactory service if they are not crowded, and they are also mindful of the fact, one however, which the ladies of Grenada have no doubt overlooked, that a very great number of the ladies of the town defer until Saturday to do their trading. The merchants feel sure that it will be just as convenient in most cases for the ladies of Grenada to trade on some other day or days, hence they make the request they do.

The merchants are confident that the ladies of Grenada are just as anxious as they are for them to highly please their friends from the country, and therefore it is that the merchants ask the right of way for the country trade on Saturdays.

The Sentinel vouches for the ladies of Grenada readily and willingly acting on the request of the merchants of Grenada. Unforeseen conditions may make it necessary for occasional Saturday shopping.

T. H. MEEK—HEAD OF MEEK MOTOR CAR CO.

When it comes to excellence of character, bigness of heart and generosity of purpose, no place is ahead of Grenada in the measure of its citizenship.

When it comes to dependableness, standing up to contracts and a recognition of the principle of live and let live, there is no set of business men anywhere that outclass those in Grenada.

Just at this time The Sentinel has specially in mind one of the young business factors of the town in the person of T. H. Meek. T. H. Meek is an elegant gentleman. He is high class in all his dealings. He is ever ready to listen and knows how to appropriate wisely and well that which he hears. His habits are of the best; his aims are of the highest, in short he is a fine business man and a most exemplary citizen and it gives this paper pleasure to bear this voluntary tribute to his worth.

Perhaps this article to some extent grows out of a remark that the writer heard one of the most intelligent men of Grenada make some weeks ago with reference to Mr. Meeks. That gentleman said, "Tom Meek is straight and honest in business and can always be counted on to do what is fair and right." That is a fine testimony as to the worth of any man. In this connection, Mr. Meek once again exemplifies the truthfulness of the Bible statement, "raise up a child in the way he should go and when he is old he will not depart from it." Tom Meek had good training at home. He deserves success and The Sentinel rejoices to know that he is prospering in business. He takes an interest in all that pertains to the best welfare of the community and is destined to fill a much wider field of usefulness.

JUDGE MCGOWAN

JUDGE MCGOWAN HOLDS CHANCERY COURT

Divorce Cases. Timely Observations As To Still Runners And Patrons. Missing Husband May Have Been Killed. $200,000 Assessed For Cost in Yocoma-Tallahatchie Drainage District.

Chancery Court convened Tuesday morning with Judge J. G. McGowan, of Water Valley, presiding. The docket was unusually light and the session was concluded Wednesday afternoon.

A great deal of the court's time was taken up with divorce cases. There was one case before his honor, that of Mrs. Foxworthy seeking a dissolution of the marriage contract because of the desertion of her husband, which caused the Judge to make some striking and very pointed observations about the making of whiskey and those who persist in patronizing that which is by the Constitution of the United States and the laws of the land is outlawed. The plaintiff's little son testified to the brutal and unkind treatment of his mother by his father, and in rendering his opinion the Court commented on this particular feature of the case which, he said, was but one of hundreds of instances that are brought under his review over his district. He was severe in his condemnation of whiskey making, and he was almost as severe in his castigation of those who patronize the whiskey maker and thereby make it a money making business for him. In this respect, every law-abiding, thoughtful citizen is bound to see that the Judge is correct and that there is perhaps nothing in all the history of books, tablets, pencils, etc., used by them. There has been quite a saving on the purchase price of books this year, as the school bought most of its supply directly from the publishing houses.

Just recently the school purchased two Duroc Jersey pigs, which it plans to feed from waste saved from school lunches, the proceeds of which will go to the general incidental funds.

On Friday night, November 3rd, the girls and boys are planning for the country that so undermines the morals of the people and that is such a great impediment in the growth of all that is good in society.

In passing, it might be stated that Foxworthy has never been heard of since he left Grenada, and as he was a frequenter of still resorts, some have surmised that he went to one still too many and that a difficulty arose which resulted in Foxworthy's being killed and his body consigned to some place where it will perhaps never be seen by the eye of mortal man.

On last week, Judge McGowan was here in vacation and heard a petition by attorneys and some interested parties in the Yocoma-Tallahatchie drainage district which was authorized by Judge McGowan at Batesville something like two years ago and which was killed in a decision of the Supreme Court. The petition sought to assess the cost of surveys and other things incident to the initial proceedings towards organizing the said district. The Judge granted the petition for the reason, as this paper understood, there was nothing else for him to do under the present interpretation of the law.

The cost assessed was slightly in excess of $200,000. This will be apportioned among the land owners asking for the district. It is expected that there will be much litigation before the cost is paid.

FIRST FROST OCT. 19

The first frost for the fall was quite evident on the morning of October 19. The weather has been quite cool several days.

BAPTIST PASTOR HAD GREAT MEETING

Sixty Three Additions At Louisiana Town. Ku Klux Make Gift.

Rev. W. E. Farr, pastor First Baptist church in Grenada, is just back from Glenmora, La., where he held a revival meeting for two weeks. Mr. Farr states that there was great interest awakened in the entire community and at the last service, that there was estimated to be 1000 people doing service.

At the last service, a rather unique experience was had by the minister when, as he states, two men robed as Ku Klux entered one aisle and two the other and the four marched down to the front and seated themselves, and when the services were concluded they presented Mr. Farr the following letter which speaks for itself, and with the letter there was $93.60.

Glenmora, Louisiana.
Sunday, Oct. 14, 1922.

Dr. W. E. Farr,
Glenmora, La.

Dear Dr. Farr:

The Knights of the Ku Klux Klan is a Protestant Organization, we have no fight against the Jew, Negro, Catholic, or any other sect or organization. They have their organizations to which we cannot belong, why should we not have such an organization? We have been unjustly accused of doing things under a mask, that is merely one part of our regalia, other organizations have such regalia, why can't we have what we choose? We stand for the moral uplift of our State and Nation, we firmly believe that you do the same, therefore our purpose of standing before you here tonight. The enclosed is for your use to do as you see fit freely it is given. May you continue to be a blessing to the people of this world.

PRESSGROVE'S TEN DAYS SALE STARTS TOMORROW

Sentinel readers will observe that the Pressgrove Dry Goods Co. is announcing, beginning tomorrow, Oct. 21, a 10 days sale at their store. During this time, there will be some extraordinary bargains offered, so those who need and must have some dependable winter merchandise had best avail themselves of the opportunities offered at this sale. As is well known, this excellent firm stands squarely behind every piece of goods they pass over their counters.

LECTURES ON DESIGNS OF LIQUOR INTERESTS

Miss Ida Green, gave an address at the Methodist church last Sunday night on the nefariousness of the liquor interest and especially the designs of that interest as to undermining national prohibition. The services at the Presbyterian and the First Baptist church were called off and the congregations of those churches joined in hearing Miss Green.

Miss Green has been across the waters and has visited England, Scotland and Wales with "Pussyfoot" Johnson in an anti-saloon fight. She gave many interesting things as to her experience in those countries. A crowded house greeted her and there is no question about the fact that the good lady is desperately in earnest and that she is sincere in her efforts.

Her work is under the auspices of the Anti-Saloon League and of course a collection was taken and an opportunity given all who would to subscribe whatever they would to be paid in monthly installments to the Anti-Saloon League.

TO ORGANIZE FOR COTTON MARKETING

The Farm Bureau Cotton Marketing Association To Try Out Grenada County. Men To Be Here Saturday To Discuss Matter With Farmers. Farmers Certainly Need Some Shifting Of The Gear.

Representatives of the Farm Bureau will be in Grenada tonight (Friday) at which time they hope to have a full meeting of the business men of Grenada to go thoroughly into the plans of the Bureau. On tomorrow (Saturday) at 10 o'clock, the farmers of the entire county are urged to attend a meeting at the court house.

Out of these meetings it is planned to formulate final plans for Grenada County and to name committees to complete the work of organization.

Whether one believes that anything can be accomplished by the Farm Bureau and Cotton Association or not, it seems that every thoughtful, sensible farmer ought to know that he can not move along to business success and prosperity as he is. If there is anything in trying out a matter until its back is sore, then it would seem that the farmers have tried the present method of marketing their cotton. "Failure," "failure," is written behind nearly every year, so it appears that they could not be any worse off by trying something new.

Just a few miles west of Grenada County, there is domiciled at Greenwood the Delta Long Staple Cotton Association which operated last year on practically the same basis that it is proposed to run the proposed Farm Bureau Cotton Association. The Delta Association handled last year 167,000 bales of cotton and saved its members on samples alone $40,000. Mr. Grenada County Farmer: Is it not time to at least try another plan?

The company numbers thirty people including a concert band and orchestra and are presenting the latest high class plays with feature vaudeville between acts.

The big tent will be located on the Fair grounds and will exhibit twice daily during the fair.

DAYS

We Are Sure the Ladies of Grenada Will Not Mind Doing This.

We the undersigned Merchants of Grenada want to ask the ladies of the town of Grenada to do their shopping on days other than Saturdays.

We are sure that they will not mind doing this when they think about it; indeed we feel that we know that they will be glad to accede to our request.

By so doing they will make it easier and better for us to wait on friends from the country on Saturday, many of whom find it inconvenient to come to Grenada on any other day, and we are sure that it will suit the convenience of our friends from the country much better to let them have the right of way on Saturdays.

Of course we appreciate that there are circumstances sometimes which makes it necessary for the ladies of the town to trade on Saturdays, but we are confident that a very large majority could just as easily make their purchases during the other five days of the week.

With assurances of our warmest appreciation of all our lady friends and customers in Grenada, and confidently counting on their cooperation in this important matter,

We are very respectfully,

A CONTEST THAT WOULD WAKE UP YOUR COUNTY.

Stanley County, N. C., about a year ago offered prizes designed to arouse the spirit of progress and generous community rivalry. Under the direction of the county school authorities, prizes of $25, $50, $100, etc., were offered for the following purposes among others:

1. To the community that makes the most improvements in schools, homes, roads, and grounds.
2. To the community that installs the most electrical appliances and waterworks.
3. For the most improvement in high school, including percentage of attendance, scholarship, high school equipment and general appearance and improvements.
4. To the community reporting the most screened homes.
5. To the home showing the most improvements in the home grounds, including planting and general arrangement, conveniences.
6. To the most systematically arranged farmstead, including the buildings, walks, screens, painting, beautifying, etc.
7. To the community having the largest number of farms named and marked, and having the most attractive names.
8. To the community having the most systematically arranged orchard and best adapted for home use, including varieties, etc.
9. To the school having the largest number of children under 18 having bank accounts.

Why can't we get something like this arranged for every county in the South during the coming twelve months? The county agent, home demonstration agent, county school superintendent, the Farm Bureau, Farmers' Union, or county cooperative marketing association, the chambers of commerce, banks, merchants, and other individuals and organizations—all ought to be interested. We believe such a contest properly advertised would do much to wake up your county. Why not get it worked up?

YOU CAN GET BACK YOUR GRIP ON HEALTH

"You can just tell the man or woman who may think Tanlac does not do good and lasting work that the medicine set me right five years ago and that I have been in fine shape ever since," was the statement made, a few days ago, by John W. Groves, a well-known merchant of Lowell, N. C.

"Nervous indigestion had almost completely wrecked my health," said could not keep down anything I would eat. Often while waiting on a customer I would get so nervous I had to call some one else, and finally I got so weak I simply had to give up work altogether. When I did get a little light food to stay on my stomach it would cause gas, smothering spells and headache.

"I took seven bottles of Tanlac and gained fifteen pounds and have never had any troubles since. My nerves are as steady as a clock now and I eat anything I want, and my appetite better in my life than I do now and it's all because of the good Tanlac did me five years ago."

Tanlac is sold by all good druggists.

"JELLY-BEANS" QUIT BARBER SHOPS, NOW SCRAPE OWN CHINS.

"Jellybeans" and "cake-eaters" have quit throwing away money for having their chins rubbed or their hair greased, if the confession of a local razor-artist is to be believed.

He said more university boys were playing barber now than ever before in the history of Soonerland. Few of the "sporty set" get their hair anything short of a hair cut. Few of the "sporty set" get their weekly tonics, daily shaves, or weekly shampoos any longer, this tradesman declared.

The barber intimated that the only pleasure he was anticipating in the business slump was the fact that his income tax report wouldn't require over a day's work before turning it over to Uncle Sam. He said he was making a living but the university boys were not doing their bit towards it. The flappers are beginning to take a hand in the business but they aren't regular enough, the barber said.

One Norman barber declared Monday that more barbers were out of work now than in years. He said two were in his shop looking for work Monday.—Norman (Okla.) Transcript.

ORGANIZED GROUPS GAIN, UN-ORGANIZED LOSE.

Here in the United States financial and industrial conditions are much better than when the year started. The most significant fact, however, is that the unorganized groups continue to suffer at the hands of the better organized elements of industry. President Samuel Gompers of the American Federation of Labor says that organized labor has succeeded in holding wages up to 95 per cent of what they were when the war ended. But unorganized labor (which largely includes the farmer) has suffered seriously.

The truth is that American labor, by reason of its organizations and the growing power of its organizations, has been able to improve its position year after year and decade after decade for almost a hundred years. The United States Department of Labor has prepared an index number of money wages per hour running from 1840 to 1920. The average wage in 1923 is taken as the base of 100. By five-year periods since 1840 the comparisons are as follows:

Year	Wage Per Hour
1840	33
1845	35
1850	38
1855	39
1860	58
1865	67
1870	67
1875	60
1880	64
1885	64
1890	69
1895	68
1900	73
1905	82
1910	93
1915	103
1920	234

Commenting on these figures, Garret Garrett in the New Republican says:

"There was a sharp decline after the panic of 1873. Yet the lowest point touched in that reaction left wages 50 per cent higher than they were before the Civil War, and a recovery almost immediately took place whereas prices continued to fall for twenty years. There was another slight reaction in wages after the panic of 1893. Save for these two interruptions, the upward trend of wages has been continuous for eighty years. Prices in that time performed several major movements of rise and fall. Money wages in 1920 were three and a half times higher than in 1870. Prices were not three and a half times higher. They were only about twice as high. Statistically it appears that real wages all this time must have been rising."

Now if agricultural labor has lost only 5 per cent from its 1920 wages, it is plain that agricultural labor and unorganized capital are getting an even larger share of American prosperity than ever before, while unorganized groups bear the brunt of the struggle.

As a farmer in our office this morning said: "The farmer heretofore has suffered from 'taxation without representation.' He has had no representation in the agencies naming the price of his products while they have taxed him into poverty." The farmer it at last beginning to organize for selling his products. It will take time to convert the faint-hearted but in the long run farmers will organize (not for talk but for the real business of selling) as thoroughly as labor has done—and with as good results.

CAN'T BUY PRINTING OUTSIDE OF STATE

To Mississippi Public:

According to an opinion recently rendered by Attorney General Robertson, no money can be legally paid out of the State or County Treasury for printing of any kind that is done outside of the State for any county or state officer, institution, college, school or department.

It is necessary for me to urge upon you the importance of this ruling, as it is a just interpretation of the State Printing Law, passed at the urgent request of the Board of Governors of the Mississippi Press Association.

As a publisher, through your newspaper, you have been for many years preaching the gospel of trade-at-home. For the benefit of your merchants, your schools and your churches, you have emphasized time and again the necessity of building up your own community.

The State Printing Law was designed to compel your public officials to do what their spirit of home pride should have prompted them to do before. I am told that some of these officials, however, are so determined to deprive the local printer of business to which he has a right to expect, that they have connived with agents representing printing establishments located in other states (some of them with fictitious Mississippi addresses) to defeat the evident purpose of this just law.

The decision of the Attorney-General puts in your hands a weapon which you can wield effectually in your own fellow publishers.

My newspaper does not do job printing, hence I am not directly interested in the enforcement of the State Printing Law. But as president of your association, I feel that it is incumbent on me to take the initiative. If your county and state officials, your schools and your colleges send their printing out of the state and pay for it with public funds in violation of the law, I want you to report the matter to me, so that prosecution may be instituted in the name of the association.

As publishers and printers, rendering adequate community service, we are entitled to this work, and we should not hesitate to demand it.

Fraternally yours,

EDGAR G. HARRIS,
President Miss. Press Association,
Laurel, Miss., Oct. 10.

MISSISSIPPI SCHOOL SUPPLY COMPANY

Lands $40,000 Contract At University

It always affords The Sentinel pleasure to chronicle anything good, and especially is this true when it has the opportunity to record any good fortune that has come to its friends.

It has in mind at present the contract for $39,500 to the Mississippi School Supply Co., of Jackson, which is really run by Grenada brains—Boyd Campbell, the manager, was lent to the enterprise by Grenada and Mr. C. C. White, also of Grenada, is one of the leading stockholders and is also its leading traveling man.

It is no surprise when a concern succeeds which is backed by such men. The Mississippi School Supply Co. fills a long felt want in the business activity of the State, and it gives The Sentinel and the many friends of Boyd Campbell and Mr. White, and others of the enterprise in Grenada, great pleasure to know that it is succeeding even beyond the fondest expectations of its promoters and organizers.

When your toilet preparations come from our drug store, you know they are first quality and free from harmful ingredients.

And it is a pleasure to know you can always get what you want, when you want it, in our store because we carry the stock.

FIRST CONTRACT SIGNED IN FARM BUREAU COTTON ASSOCIATION

With the signing of the first contract by Chairman B. B. Wiggins of Jackson, the Mississippi Farm Bureau Cotton Association was recently launched. This campaign is expected to result in signing up approximately 200,000 bales of cotton in the counties outside the delta to be sold on the cooperative plan by the farmers own employees. The closing date of the campaign is December 23 and at that time it is expected that Mississippi will have a large amount of cotton in its association. In this work the farmers of the state are merely following the lead of the delta planters who have so successfully marketed their crop during the past year and are profiting by the example of the farmers in eight other Southern states where cooperative cotton growers associations are formed.

The organization work is in the hands of the committee appointed by the president of the Farm Bureau Federation and this committee has secured the services of the entire extension division of the Mississippi A. and M. College to aid in putting over this big association, and it has also secured the assistance of the American Cotton Growers Exchange of Dallas, Texas, and through it retained the services of a campaign manager and fifteen highly trained experts who have aided in putting over this men will be in charge of a group of county agents who will work with the farm bureau and other committees of farmers in each county. The work will be put on in fourteen counties at a time. As soon as the campaign is completed in the first group of counties, the leaders will move over into another division and so on to the end of the campaign.

Already publicity meetings have been held in a number of counties and farmers and business men of those counties have had the plan of the association thoroughly explained to them and have pledged their hearty support to the movement. Throughout the entire state there is an eagerness on the part of the farmers to sign the contract as soon as possible. They have heard of the splendid success that other farmers are having in selling cotton through the cooperative selling associations, and are no longer willing to be denied this privilege. Between now and the twenty-third of December every farmer in Mississippi will have the opportunity of coming into his own cotton marketing agency and finally having a "say so" as to how his cotton shall be handled.

How Association Will Function.
So many inquiries have come into the Mississippi Farm Bureau Cotton Association office as to just how the cotton association would function in handling the farmers' cotton that these questions have been listed and the answers to each set forth. Those questions and answers give to every farmer a clear cut idea of what the association will accomplish:

Who can belong to this association?
Only men who grow cotton in Mississippi or who receive cotton as share rent from Mississippi farms.

Can anyone else belong to this association?
No. It is contrary to the marketing agreement.

What kind of organization is this to be?
Strictly a cooperative business enterprise, with the single specific purpose of getting an increased return for the cotton of its members.

Will the association sell the cotton of the non-members?
No. The law forbids it to do so.

Is the association organized to make profit?
Not for the association, but for each member as a cotton producer.

Is this a holding movement?
No. It is a plan of orderly marketing in the place of dumping.

What kind of organization do you call it?
A non-capital stock, non-profit association.

If there is no capital stock of what do the assets in the association consist?
The cotton grown by the members who sign the contract.

Have similar pools been signed in other states?
Yes. In Oklahoma, Texas, Mississippi Delta, Arizona, North Carolina, Arkansas, South Carolina, Georgia and Alabama. Each is affiliated with the American Cotton Growers' Exchange, Tennessee and Louisiana are now conducting similar campaigns.

The Contract and The Law.
Does the marketing agreement and the contract conform to law?
Yes. It has stood the test of inspection by various state supreme courts, and by the Federal Trade Commission. It has the additional backing of having been organized under a special act of the Mississippi Legislature.

When will the association be organized?
At the end of the present sign-up enough farmers sign the contract to insure the association of having at least 100,000 bales of cotton to sell, based on 1922 production.

BOND ON CONSOLIDATED SCHOOLS

An exchange says: "State Superintendent of Education Bond announces that Mississippi, according to population, has more consolidated schools than any state in the union. One hundred and eighty-one consolidated school districts have built a home for the teacher, for which he is charged no rent. Mississippi has more teachers' homes today than any other state irrespective of population. Fifty Mississippi consolidated schools have been approved by the federal government and next year will do vocational work in agriculture. These schools will receive federal aid. The total enrollment in the consolidated schools last session was 76,000. There are 1,600 transportation wagons and trucks transporting 35,000 children."

This is indeed a very creditable showing, and leads one to wonder what more can be accomplished by the "Better Schools Week" campaign now on throughout the state.

COME OUT OF YOURSELF

Don't live like a hermit of yourself, Forgetting, forgotten of men; There's something in life besides piling self—

Come out in the sunlight again! Though money is something to help you along,

It isn't as good as a smile; There's health in a laugh, there's wealth in a song—

Come out of yourself awhile! The fellow who lives in his own little soul

And never comes out of his shell, May gather a million, may garner a roll

But what is it good in a cell? Why lock yourself up in a prison of pride,

And when you have come to the end, Have no one to care that you lived or died,

Because you had never a friend? Come out of yourself and step into the sun,

Come out of the gloom of the cloud; Come out of yourself and get into the fun

And walk in the midst of the crowd, For troubles, like mushrooms, will grow in the dark,

But they can't stand the glow of the day— The perfume of roses, the song of the lark,

Are waiting just over the way, The world may go wrong and be freighted with care,

Misfortunes may handle you ill, But still there are plenty of troubles to share

And give you a life on the hill, If you have forgotten fraternal delights,

Your lips have forgotten to smile, Here's something to cheer you, to set you to rights—

Come out of yourself for a while! —Douglas Malloch.

SILENCE IS GOLDEN

While little things irritate you, be silent. When someone speaks sharply to you, do not answer. To report unkindly would not only make the matter worse. Remember it takes two to make a quarrel. "Words breed tears left unsaid come back to grieve us when we think them dead." There are times when silence is one of the greatest virtues conceivable. It requires great strength of character to hold the tongue in the face of some things, but it is a battle nobly fought and won—a victory over self. To speak is easy, but it often means defeat.—Star of Hope.

STATE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION

Jackson, Miss., Oct. 14, 1922
Weekly Letters From The State Department Of Education.

By W. F. Bond, State Superintendent.

Since there will be held in practically every county in the state for the next few months a monthly meeting of the County Teachers' Association it is very necessary that these meetings be made worth while. It seems to me that the following topics should be discussed at all of these meetings during the early months of the present school term:

1. What a teacher can do for the health of the children.
2. How to organize a Parent-Teacher Association.
3. Libraries.
4. Proper lighting, ventilation and days.
5. Arbor Day and other special days.
6. Co-operation of the teachers with the County Superintendent.
7. Necessary cooperation between the county public schools and the County Agricultural High School.
8. The teacher as a leader in the community.

Those teachers who accept a place to have something definite to give on the program should do their best will enroll in the County Association that every teacher in every county the association. It is to be hoped also in the State Education Association.

MEMORIALS ON HIGHWAY.

Plan Of Work For Beautifying And Adorning "The Jefferson Davis Highway."

The main feature of the work outlined for the Jefferson Davis Highway will be to memorialize the names and histories of the people who have lived and now live in the South by memorial Tree Planting—trees to be 125 feet apart, not less than 32 feet from center of present roadway. Crepe Myrtle and overgreen shrubs one half way between trees, slightly in advance of same.

Each county to have a chairman for this work who will keep an exact account of location of trees and name of donors so that we may have a history of the people who lived and contributed to social, political and general life of each county. The names to be on one side of page and a condensed history opposite name. If a picture of each donor may be secured it will make the individual work much more attractive.

The distinctive feature of the highway will be its mile post of two Lombardy poplars on either side of roadway and half mile posts of one Lombardy Poplar on either side of roadway. This tree has been distinctively placed on highways all over the world, but not as living mile posts, so in doing this from one end of the line to the other it will be most unusual.

Mrs. J. P. Broadstreet, Chr. The work of memorial Tree Planting, Nov. 11th, will be begun by planting four Lombardy Poplars in memory of the boys who died in the service during the late war and these poplars will cost $4.00 a piece delivered. Who will give a tree? The trees will be the first mile post planted on Jefferson Davis Highway. Next year we hope to see one mile of Memorial Trees planted.

Mrs. W. J. Ray, County Chairman.
Wm. C. McLean, Jr., Legion Chairman.

The Department of Agriculture is suel its final condition estimate today, indicating a crop of practically 10,000,000 bales. The carryover will allow withdrawals of one and one half million bales at the outside. Where can America obtain her prospective requirements of 6,500,000 bales should Europe attempt to import and consume the amount that she required last year? Two and two makes four in spite of all argument and it is impossible to consume twelve and one half million bales unless twelve and one half million bales are available for consumption.—Cotton and Cotton Oil (Dallas) News, Oct. 16.

A neighbor fairly posed us the other night by asking us the simple question, "When is a fish crazy?" and assured us it was only when the aforesaid fish was in-seine. We immediately left.

THE OFFICIAL ORGAN OF GRENADA COUNTY

If the present city administration does not find some way to cut expense bills, then the taxpayers of Grenada will find one at the next election who will.

Vote to increase city taxes and thereby say that you want to make it more difficult for the town to get more people and more business enterprises in its midst.

Clarksdale disputes Greenwood's claim of being the best staple cotton market in the world. Well, we do not know which one is correct, but in the language of the old darkey, Clarksdale "has sho been mighty slow about sputing."

What man or concern with good business judgment is going to locate where the tax-gatherer meets him at the depot and asks for 6 1-2 per cent of what he makes—for that is the amount of city and county taxes in Grenada County? The time has come to speak plainly.

The Delta Cooperative Long Staple Cotton Association whose headquarters are at Greenwood, claims to have saved its members on samples alone $40,000.00 on the 167,000 bales of cotton which it handled the last season. It prevented the promiscuous and repeated sampling of cotton which it handled.

TAXES HERE AND ABROAD

Direct taxation by Uncle Sam now averages $26.80 a year for each person in the country. At that, we are getting off cheaply. The Englishman's yearly tax is an average of $76.12, the Frenchman's $39.03.

The German gets out with $1.26 a year, which illustrates the disadvantages of losing a modern war.—N. O. Daily States.

WHAT NEGROES HAVE DONE.

In 160 years Negroes in the United States have acquired 22,000,000 acres of land as working farmers, and not as speculators. They own 600,000 homes and 45,000 churches and operate 78 banks, 100 insurance companies, besides 70,000 business enterprise of various kinds, with a capital of $150,000,000. Illiteracy has been reduced to 26 per cent, due to the fact that there are more than 400 normal schools and colleges for Negro teachers.—Cotton & Cotton Oil News.

BONDED DEBTS OF CITIES AND TOWNS

Bonds issued by American municipalities and states from the first of the year to September totaled $902,065,118.

Unless this pace is checked, it will not be many years until states and municipalities will have themselves mortgaged to an amount exceeding the national debt. Maybe they are closer to it now than anyone imagines.

Here is real financial peril. Tax payers should shift their attention from the national debt to reckless spending cities.—N. O. Daily States.

HAS HELPED DRIVE PEOPLE OUT OF STATE

The issue now before the people is whether or not the state governments which have controlled Mississippi and more than doubled its taxes shall be continued in kind or a radical change made. We favor the radical change and the substitution of competency for incompetency, men of good report for men of bad repute, and economy in place of extravagance. As it is, taxes amount to rent of property, in many parts of the state, and mortgages have been given and are being increased in order to get money with which to pay taxes. The extravagant appropriations that were claimed would bring money and people to Mississippi, have failed to accomplish that result, and has driven far more people and money from Mississippi to other localities having less tax, than it has ever induced to look seriously our way.

The talk that taxes can never be reduced except by bringing in more money and people to our state is vain and illogical. The census shows Mississippi to be the only state in the Union, apart from two of almost sterile soil and unbearable climate, that failed to gain in wealth and population during the past ten years; and further shows that our largest losses of population are young men and women who were educated here, found no opportunities that suited them and went from Mississippi to better their condition. Therefore, it behooves us now to cease confiscatory taxation and attempting to have all those things which richer states can afford, but are not within our ability to pay for. Our past policy is just like that of men of small means trying to have everything that their richer neighbors are enjoying, involving themselves in bankruptcy. —Lexington Advertiser.

LET'S HAVE A TREE-PLANTING IN GRENADA

Let's have a tree planting in Grenada. There is hardly anything that can add more of beauty and real grandeur to a town than shade trees. We pride ourselves on the beauty and home-like appearance of our town. We are entitled to all we claim, and aye, more.

But we cannot stand still. Aside from the mere beauty of shade trees, they bear a message from the country-life that is always cheering and helpful, and, too, they add wonderfully to comfort in the heated season and serve to break the intensity of the heat.

Then there is still another feature of the tree-planting that is destined at a very early date to demand the attention of these who want to fortify our country against the adversities of the future, and that is that the rehabilitation of our forests.

There are a number of vacant lots in Grenada whose value could be enhanced by shade trees. There is hardly a home that could not well make room for additional shade trees. And in planting trees, it would be well to vary them, that is just not everybody use the oak. The maple makes a beautiful tree.

BASE BALL AND FOOT BALL HOLD SWAY.

If one is to judge by what is appearing in the daily newspapers, he can but conclude that our college and university base ball and foot ball schools have opened. What little, if any, has appeared in the press about what the students are doing in any department where studies are to be pursued, is meager indeed.

We wonder sometimes how the student can take a several weeks tour, sometimes into distant states, with a ball team and then keep up his studies. If he can, then he has not enough college duties or he is too precocious to really need to go to college.

Base ball and foot ball are all right in conservatives doses but we are persuaded that our college heads, in order, as they sometimes put it, "to keep up the college spirit," are yielding to athletics far more than their best judgment advises.

And the Standard Oil Co. has declared a 200 per cent dividend. Yes, and the day is not far distant when the righteous judgment of American people will demand and secure adjustments, laws of need be, that will make such earnings impossible. It is past our understanding how a gigantic enterprise can earn money that rapidly without shameless profiteering.

"The greatest blessing to the children of the earth, is, after all, personality."

Ford
THE UNIVERSAL CAR

"We are making another reduction in the prices of Ford Cars and the Ford Trucks, effective Oct. 17. The new prices average $50.00 under former prices, and are the lowest at which Ford Cars and Trucks have ever been sold. List prices, F. O. B. Detroit, are now as follows:

PRESENT NEW PRICES

Chassis	$235.00
Runabout	$269.00
Touring Car	$298.00
Truck	$380.00
Coupe	$530.00
Sedan	$595.00

"We are taking advantage of every known economy in the manufacture of our products in order that we may give them to the public at the lowest possible price, and by doing that we feel that we are doing the one big thing that will help this country into more prosperous times. People are interested in prices and are buying when prices are right.

"The production of Ford Cars and Trucks for the last three months again broke all previous high records with the total reaching 401,264 cars and trucks. The greatest quarter in history of the Ford Motor Company.

"One noteworthy feature of our sales is the increased demand for Ford Trucks and Cars for sale men. This class of commercial business has been gradually increasing the past 60 days and we interpret it as a very good sign of improvement in general business.

"No reduction has been made in the price of the Fordson Tractor, and none is contemplated."

Go over these new prices! See how little it costs to become the owner of a Ford Car or a Ford Truck. Can you really afford to do without one any longer?

Let us tell you more about it and advise you regarding the delivery of the particular type of car in which you are interested.

Miss Mai McCracken of the city school faculty went to Jackson today (Friday) to attend a committee meeting called by State Supt. Bond.

Mrs. M. McCracken after spending sometime in New Orleans and at Forest, Miss., is again with her daughter, Miss Mai McCracken.

The beautiful home of Mrs. J. R. Countiss was the scene of a most enjoyable affair on last Friday evening when she so graciously entertained the Wesley Bible Class, of which Mrs. Willie Mai Dubard is the beloved and efficient teacher. During the evening several very amusing games were played and also a clever guessing contest, at the close of which a dainty salad course was served.

Goodnights were very reluctantly said, and every guest left with the secret hope that Mrs. Countiss would entertain the class again some time in the future.

The young ladies of the Wesley Bible Class are consistent Sunday School workers, and are very enthusiastic in the promotion of that branch of the church.

REVIVAL MEETING GROWS. Attendance Better Every Day; Boy Scout Night Is Set For Friday.

"Find your place, go to it, and stay with it" urged Rev. Theodore Copeland of Dallas, Texas, in his address this morning before the student body of the university.

"Why are you in school? What are you preparing yourself for?" were some of the questions Rev. Copeland put to the student body. "It is well to know Greek and Latin, but find a use for them. If they do not stand the test of usefulness, leave them alone," he advised.

Find Your Place. "Find your place, young man. Find, what you are best fitted for young woman."

"To see our colleges today, one would think that everyone was trying to become a doctor or lawyer. We already have more than we need. "If your place is to be a blacksmith, don't try to succeed as a musician. You can be a success as a barber as well as a banker."

"Why is your own President Brooks in Who's Who? Because a few years ago he found that for which he was best fitted, went to it, and stayed with it."

"What an opportunity you students have to drink from this great intellectual fountain."

CIPAL OFFICERS

A very patriotic reversion to an old aldermanic feature of municipal government is offered to the capital of Stone county by some citizens who say they are willing to serve without pay. Ordinances will be made, sessions held, books kept, taxes collected, and such effort as they can make for the benefit of the whole community is offered freely and without price. They are willing to do this to secure a plain business administration.

They have no special program, they declare, they do not cunningly devise a political platform of catchy phrase and specious promise; they will not contend for election.

We have suggested in these columns that good men and true offer for the Mayoralty in all cities in Mississippi; and that as an inducement to them to do so, they be relieved of mere routine labors, and that their compensation for service as police judge could be made in fees, or a justice of the peace could act as judge on appointment by the commissioners or council.

When Mayor Kennedy announced, when he accepted a recent commercial secretaryship of profit, that he would not accept the salary of the mayor's office for the remainder of that term, we applauded his generosity.

We know of no motive behind the Wiggins gentlemen except the one they give, which is highly creditable. If there are other motives, those who aspire to the offices, for one reason or another, will soon disclose them. But the idea is of worth and importance.—Biloxi Herald.

THE SAME IN WINONA

Winona Residents Speak Out for the Welfare of the Public.

It is just the same in Winona as here in Grenada; our friends there speak out in the same glad, earnest way as so many grateful Grenada men and women have spoken in these columns for years past.

Lem Thompson, foreman, Cotton Mill, Winona, Miss., says: "Doan's Kidney Pills are a great kidney medicine. Several years ago I was working at the carpenter trade and I be-troble. My kidneys were weak and annoyed me day and night."

The heavy dull ache across my back and hips was a great annoyance, making it difficult for me to move. After giving Doan's Kidney Pills a fair test, I found they were just as they only when I think it advisable to have stood the test of several years, had been recommended. My cure it is seldom that I take Doan's now flush my kidneys."

Price 60c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mr. Thompson had. Foster-Milburn Co., Mfrs., Buffalo, N. Y.

DOLLAR-BOOK CAMPAIGN

If you had to spend months taking "The Cure" for tuberculosis would you relish a good book to read?

Some reasons why a "Dollar-Book" campaign for funds for a library for the Tuberculosis Sanatorium patients is preferred to the giving of books:

1st. Books can be selected with due consideration of local needs, as books will be needed ranging from elementary readers to encyclopedia and reference sets.

2nd. Sets of books, such as "Wit and Humor of the World," "Mark Twain," and others dealing with the brighter side of life can be purchased.

3rd. Current publications and daily papers can be subscribed for.

4th. Duplication avoided except where necessary.

The Federated Clubs of the state are asked to make a campaign during the week of October 23-28 for $5000. This amount has been subdivided in proportionate amounts to the clubs of each district, no club being asked to raise an excessive amount. The clubs can canvas in adjacent territory and counties where there are no clubs.

Will you give One Dollar to the library fund for the Tuberculosis Sanatorium patients? Give through your nearest federated club or send direct to Library Fund, Sanatorium, Mississippi. Credit will be given the clubs for any amount sent direct.

GRACE SUFFICIENT.

The other evening I was riding home after a heavy day's work. I felt very weary and sore depressed, when suddenly and suddenly as a lightning flash, that text came to me, "My Grace is sufficient for thee." I reached home and looked it up in the original, and at last it came to me in this way, "My grace is sufficient for thee," and I said, "I should think it is, Lord," and burst out laughing. I never fully understood what the holy laughter of Abraham was until then. It seemed to make unbelief so absurd. It was as though some little fish, being very thirsty, was troubled about drinking the river dry, and Father Thames said: "Drink away, little fish; my stream is sufficient for thee." Or it seemed like a little mouse in the granaries of Egypt, after the seven years of plenty fearing it might die of famine. Joseph might say: "Cheer up, little mouse; my granaries are sufficient for thee." Again, I imagined a man away up yonder, in a lofty mountain, saying to himself, "I breathe so many cubic feet of air every year I fear I shall exhaust the oxygen in the atmosphere," but the earth might say: "Breathe away, O man, and fill thy lungs ever; my atmosphere is sufficient for thee." O, brethren, be great believers! Such faith will bring your souls to heaven and heaven to your souls.—C. H. Spurgeon.

RED CROSS MAKES GOOD

WASHINGTON, Oct. 14.—Seventy-two disasters, in which 674 persons were reported killed and 521 injured, called for emergency relief measures an 6th expenditure of $1,441,486 by the American Red Cross during the fiscal year ended June 30, 1922, according to a statement made public today base dupo ntthe forthcoming annual report of the Red Cross. These disasters caused property damage estimated at more than $30,000,000, and drendered more than 145,000 persons homeless or otherwise needing assistance. In one section alone, the Louisiana-Mississippi border, the Red Cross for weeks fed over 35,000 flood refugees daily.

The greatest toll of life was taken by hurricane and tornado, while the overflowing of rivers, the breaking of dams and torrential rain storms drove the greatest number of people from their homes. Fire played an important part in the chain of disasters which made insistant demand for Red Cross relief workers.

The year's disasters reported, for which the estimates of killed and injured are considered to be accurate in only about one-third of the instances were dead and injured mentioned, included 26 floods, 19 tornadoes or storms, 15 fires, four epidemics, two theatre collapses, two shipwrecks (one an airship), a bridge collapse, mine explosion, railway collision and a drought.

The geographical distribution of these disasters shows the widespread character of the emergency relief required of the Red Cross. The detailed list in the annual report specifies the relief measures applied in the follow-

Bridge collapse—Chester, Pa.

Railroad accident—Bryn Athyn, Pa.

Mine explosion—Gates, Pa. Of the floods, that at San Antonio, Texas, caused the greatest property loss, $6,000,000, and the most fatalities, 100. The flood in the vicinity of Vicksburg and Natchez, Miss., rendered 31,000 persons destitute. Among the unusual disaster reports was that from China where last May the American Red Cross Chapter at Peking went to the relief of non-combatants wounded during the fighting at Chang Hsin Tien, most of them hit by bits of flying pottery shot up by the contending forces.

In the Red Cross disaster relief records there will probably remain as a chapter by itself the details of one calamity which touched nearly every State with an intimate sense of horror. This was the collapse of the roof of the Knickerbocker Theatre in Washington, D. C., resulting in almost 100 deaths and 125 persons injured. Located in the section of the National capital containing palatial homes and great apartment houses, this motion picture theatre was patronized by many persons of prominence in the official and civil life of the city, persons whose connections radiated over the entire country. The horror was intensified by a terrific snow storm which, though it retarded, did not block Red Cross relief.

The crash and destruction by fire of the U. S. Army dirigible airship Roma in Virginia last February, with the loss of 34 officers and enlisted men, was the first disaster of its kind in this country to call for Red Cross relief. The suddenness of the accident tested the readiness of the organization and of the Chapter at Hampton, Va., but the response was immediate. Not only was relief furnished the survivors, but funds were provided to bring relatives of the dead to the scene from long distances.

In the year's overseas record for aid rendered by the Red Cross are two fires in the Philippine Islands, one in Manila which destroyed 1,000 homes with a loss of $1,500,000 and 5,000 persons made homeless, the other at Tono which drove 3,000 from their dwellings. In medical relief that was quick and effective the smallpox epidemic at San Domingo with a total of 22,000 cases and 225 deaths in a single day tried the preparedness of the Red Cross for action in epidemics. The same may be said of the San Domingo hurricane which killed 12 persons and reduced 182 homes to wreckage. The flood in San Salvador with a death toll of 50 and 2,000 refugees in dire distress was also effectively handled by the local Chapter of the American Red Cross.

The year has seen the further perfection of disaster relief administrative measures in every field, and that the work may be carried on to still greater accomplishments the American Red Cross is appealing for a world-wide renewal of membership during the annual Roll Call to be conducted from Armistice Day, Nov. 11, to and including Thanksgiving Day, Nov. 30. In Chapters throughout the country the equipment and trained relief workers to cope with local disasters is always ready, and the system of communication makes it possible to consolidate relief measures without loss of time for use in any part of the United States.

BE PATRIOTIC---PATRONIZE HOME MERCHANTS

FROM TIME TO TIME many women of our city journey to other nearby cities on visits—and while there they thoughtlessly make many purchases that should rightfully be made at home—and could be made here equally as well.

HOW MUCH each year do these out-of-town firms contribute toward the support of our home institutions?

DO THEY CONTRIBUTE one cent toward the education of our children? Do they help to maintain our police and fire departments, which afford protection for our families and our homes?

DO THESE OUT-OF-TOWN FIRMS contribute one cent toward the paving and upkeep of the streets of our town, the roads of our county and our public thoroughfares?

HOW MUCH INTEREST do these out-of-town houses take in the up-building and support of our churches and charitable institutions?

IN SPENDING your money outside of Grenada county for goods that may be purchased here, has it ever occurred to you that you are retarding the growth of your town, that perhaps you are working against the interests of your own husband, brother, father, or friend?

WOMEN OF THIS COMMUNITY, you have shown your civic pride in many ways heretofore. Will you not weigh this question carefully and devote a part of your time, energy and influence toward rectifying the evils of out-of-town buying?

SPEND YOUR MONEY in your town and you will find that it will come back to us all one way or another.

OUR MERCHANTS will be able to carry bigger and better stocks—more people will be employed, and Grenada county will grow. OUR HOME MERCHANTS CAN SERVE YOU BEST.

A WAR RECORD

One of the main things in every war is to keep every man in the best of physical condition. This can only be done by prevention if possible and immediate cure if disease is contracted.

A large per cent of the soldiers, while "Over Seas," contracted that well known skin malady "Itch." One of them has the following to say about a famous itch remedy. "I want you to know just what I think of Spivas one day itch remedy," writes Mr. Shelby Woodward, of Louisville, Miss. "I had Itch once and I had tried about ten different medicines, which did no good. One day I heard about this Spivas one day remedy. I got me a box and used it according to directions and was well within a day or two, all the bumps were gone within a week."

While I was in the army several of my friends got this disease and I wrote for a box so they could try it and it was such a success that I re-ordered several times and it never failed in a single case. This remedy is a sure shot and never fails."

Spiva's One Night Itch Remedy is sold by druggists. "One night is right." We recommend it. We ought to know, we have it.—Anona Company, Jacksonville, Tenn.

The honor roll for the first month of school was not completed in time to appear in "School Notes," this week but it will be printed with the second months honor roll at the completion of second months work.

On Friday, October 13th, the foot ball team of Grenada High went to Clarksdale to play the second game of the season. We left Grenada about 6:40 on the sunrise special, "The Pea Vine," arriving at Greenwood at eight o'clock.

We looked around the city, then we walked over to the river bridge. On returning, we visited the High School. Greenwood High was expecting Charleston's football team that day, so they thought that we were Charleston's team. Some exclaimed when they saw Roy Horton that they knew they were going to get beat. Their coach came out and found that we were from Grenada instead of from Charleston. He then gave us some information on the weakness and "greenness" of his team. We took all of it in but believed none of it.

Then we went up town, after leaving the High School. Mr. Guinn, our coach, bought us a sandwich apiece, after which we went to the Irving Hotel which is a very pretty hotel. At 11 o'clock we took the train for Clarksdale.

We arrived at Clarksdale at about 1:45. Some of the High School boys met us and took us to "Dinty Moore's Cafe" where we had some soup and another sandwich apiece. After which we were taken to the school building to dress.

At 3:30 the game was called. Clarksdale showed mighty good sportsmanship during the game. Our boys played a good game, but we were out classed. After the game the boys were introduced to the young ladies and young men who were to take them to their homes for supper and lodging.

All of the football players were taken out to the best homes. Indeed the hospitality shown to us by Clarksdale should be imitated by us when we have visiting teams.—A Football boy.

A WEDDING IN TATUM COMMUNITY.

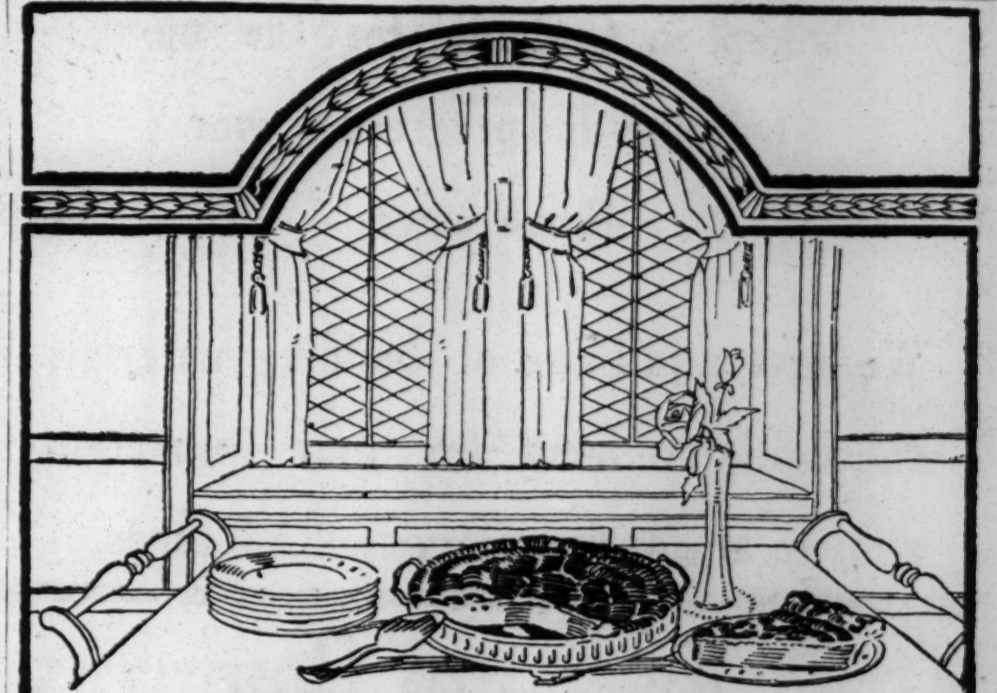

On last Sunday afternoon at the residence of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Arch Allison in the Tatum community, marriage vows were solemnized by Rev. J. R. Cunningham of the Presbyterian church of Grenada between Prof. J. L. Weeks and Miss Myrtle Allison.

Prof. Weeks is a fine young man and is at present at the head of the Pauls school. His bride is a very attractive and intelligent young lady. She is noted for her popularity and for her many friends.

Quite a number of friends and neighbors gathered to witness this important event in the lives of these young people.

Mr. and Mrs. Jerry T. Talbert, of Asheville, are visiting Mr. Talbert's mother, Mrs. M. L. Talbert. Mr. Talbert and wife are looking well and both express themselves as being pleased with Asheville, yet they say that it is not like Grenada.
